

CONTINUOUS LEARNING

Continuous Learning augments education, training, and experience standards established for the DoD AT&L workforce. The DoD Policy on Continuous Learning, signed by the Under Secretary of Defense (Acquisition, Technology, and Logistics) on September 13, 2002, provides guidance on obtaining, calculating, and documenting continuous learning credit for members of the workforce through a variety of activities. PERFORMANCE LEARNING MODEL

Since 1991, the Defense Acquisition University (DAU) has provided quality certification and assignment-specific training to the DoD AT&L workforce.

Our performance learning model expands learning assets to include:

Training—through Web-enabled, hybrid, and classroom courses with case-based instruction aimed at developing critical thinkers.

Visit <http://www.dau.mil/catalog>.

Performance Support—with rapidly delivered business solutions offered to students and their organizations after the classroom experience through on-site consulting, targeted training, and rapid deployment training.

Visit http://www.dau.mil/performance_support.

Knowledge Sharing—through the AT&L Knowledge Sharing System and the Acquisition Community Connection, connect with experts, peers, and acquisition resources. Visit <http://akss.dau.mil>.
